Re: Letter of Reference

To Whom It May Concern:

It is our sincere pleasure to highly recommend Clark Duncan & Morris for every aspect of your office relocation. Had we not just gone through this with Peter Morris and Sherie Duncan we would never have believed that the dreaded "office move" could be so well managed and believe it or not, "so easy!". No matter how many questions we asked or how many requests we made from required insurance documents to the advantages of crates over boxes Peter's response was immediate. The movers were on time, conscientious and worked together like a professional team that had done this many times before.

We interviewed several of the big moving companies and then we talked to Peter Morris and there was not even a comparison as to who we wanted to work with, Clark Duncan & Morris was the only choice for us.

Thank you Clark Duncan & Morris for all your help during our office move and please accept our letter in support of your application of the BBB Award for Excellence.

Sincerely,
